

Using halving, followed by re-normalization, it is possible to construct a  $2^n$ th root of a unit norm complex number, which when taken far enough allows the computation of a logarithm.

Using a single N-R step normalization, this seems to work fairly well for  $\theta < \pi/4$ .